

Celebrating Park Performers

Park Playhouse has been producing free, outdoor summer theater in Albany, New York's Washington Park for more than 21 years. The Albany law office of Iseman, Cunningham, Riester & Hyde LLP, also located in Washington Park, is celebrating its 25th year and supports Park Playhouse with advertising in its playbill.

This summer's show, Chicago, originally produced on Broadway in 1976, takes a dark and skeptical look at crime, notoriety and celebrity in Chicago in the 1920s. The Park Playhouse show has been reviewed as one of its best yet. Performances run through July 30 with youth performances and education programs scheduled for August.
