ABOUT THE LABOR & EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE GROUP

Primerus member firms are an international collection of labor and employment lawyers from independent firms who collaborate with one another to offer seamless and comprehensive multi-jurisdictional service to their clients. Primerus' labor and employment lawyers represent employers and management executives in litigation and administrative proceedings, preventive counseling and compliance services, audits and training, contract drafting, review and implementation, and dispute resolution. Human resource professionals and management executives utilize the services of Primerus members in order to navigate the many federal, state, and local laws that impact the employment relationship and to manage their risk in avoiding protracted and costly litigation. These services are provided by our Primerus member firms efficiently and without the large law firm price tag.
