About Primerus

Primerus is an international society of nearly 180 top-rated, independent, small and mid-sized law firms located in more than 40 countries around the world that have earned the right to display the Primerus Seal of quality.

John C. “Jack” Buchanan formed Primerus in 1992 to restore honor and dignity to the legal profession, and to help rebuild the public’s trust in lawyers and the judicial system. Pursuing this goal was important then, and it’s even more vital today, given the challenges of doing business in today’s fast-paced, global economy.

Every Primerus lawyer is committed to a set of common values, the Primerus Six Pillars:

- Integrity
- Excellent Work Product
- Reasonable Fees
- Continuing Legal Education
- Civility
- Community Service

It is because of an unwavering commitment to these values that Primerus has been able to attract and retain only the best small and mid-size law firms around the world. Each potential law firm must successfully complete an extensive screening process to obtain Primerus membership, and consistency of quality is ensured through annual auditing processes for every Primerus member firm, so companies in need of legal services can call upon any Primerus lawyer with confidence that he or she is reasonably priced, highly competent, and worthy of your trust.

What It Means When You See the Primerus Seal

If you're looking for a lawyer, you're probably looking for experience. Someone worthy of respect. Most of all, someone you can trust. Behind the Primerus seal is a wealth of research. It tells you that Primerus screens each law firm and its members carefully to ensure that our rigorous standards are met and upheld. The process begins with a series of questions – we ask judges, lawyers, bar associations, and clients. We check with the candidate's insurance carrier to see if any malpractice claims have been filed. If so, we review the claims thoroughly to determine what occurred and why. Candidates with a history of malpractice claims are not qualified for admission to Primerus. The end result: Only law firms that have successfully passed this careful scrutiny have the right to display the Primerus seal, so clients in need of legal services can call upon any Primerus lawyer with complete confidence that he or she is reasonably priced, highly competent, and most importantly, trustworthy.
